

Chloe Ferguson, Project Manager

After completing a Bachelor of Arts in English Literature and Art History at McGill University Chloe went on pursue a Masters of Arts in Journalism at London College of Communication (LCC) in the UK.

Upon completing her dissertation on the representation of Indigenous protest in Canadian print media, she relocated back to Montreal to work for The Right Honourable Paul Martin, former Prime Minister of Canada and founder of the Martin Family Initiative (MFI).

She has been Mr. Martin's Executive Assistant and speechwriter since 2012, managing his domestic interests which focus primarily on Indigenous education, health and well-being and his international responsibilities which focus on the G20, the global oceans, and African development.